PRESS RELEASE

Japanese textile brand HOSOO launches pop-up showroom in New York at Atelier Courbet, Oct 4 – Dec 28, 2013

As HOSOO continues to develop and nurture its international distribution network we are proud to announce our new partnership with Atelier Courbet in New York where HOSOO textiles will be presented alongside other works of selected craftsmen and designers from October 2013.

Atelier Courbet is a gallery and showroom in the Brewster Coach Makers building on the fringe of SoHo. At the cross section of heritage, centuries-old techniques, and a contemporary aesthetic, Atelier Courbet opens the doors to a new gallery-shop representing some of the world's finest craftsmen, from workshops established as far back as the 16th century. Founder Melanie Courbet has scoured the globe for the most skilled hands of today to present a curated selection of exquisite objects, furniture pieces, textiles, and home accessories.

HOSOO is a Kyoto-based textile company founded in 1688 and specialized in superior quality textiles for high-end interior design and fashion. HOSOO textiles are designed and developed in collaboration with international designers that share the same vision of revisiting time-honored Japanese weaving techniques to create sophisticated contemporary textiles for the international market. The collection offers a variety of unique designs, all international in look and style and with a vivid color scheme, ranging from dual-tone to multi-tone and from subtle to vibrant.
