The Kyoto-based textile company HOSOO is delighted to announce the launch of a sophisticated, versatile and flexible screen concept – Prologue – during this year's Salone del Mobile. Prologue serves as a spatial element or as a piece of furniture, and will add a subtle accent to a room, whether in a restaurant, hotel, gallery or a residential setting. Prologue can either be hung from the ceiling or placed on the floor to instil a sense of intimacy and poetry. Framed with amazing Nishijin textiles from HOSOO, Prologue will add softness and warmth to the space and is also a great acoustics or ambience lighting solution. Prologue is designed by OEO Studio.

Prologue can be experienced at the Tatra Showroom alongside new textile collections and down jackets from fashion brand Tatra, created with Nishijin textile from HOSOO.

HOSOO, founded in 1688, supplies textiles to leading brands within high-end interiors and fashion worldwide. HOSOO is a brand with an outstanding heritage, building on age-old Japanese traditions. The HOSOO mission is to bring the poetry of Japanese craftsmanship to the world and to develop new distinctive collections true to the crafts and legacy of the company, while also reaching out to a global audience.
